

Application Deadline: January 20, 2012

2012 Sidley Prelaw Scholars Initiative

A lack of resources to attend costly LSAT preparation classes and to fund expensive admissions applications is a significant factor in hindering the entry of talented, diverse students into law school. The Sidley Prelaw Scholars Initiative is designed to help address this threshold issue by meeting the specific needs of racially-diverse students seeking to attend law school. Sidley Prelaw Scholars, chosen from college juniors and seniors who demonstrate academic promise and financial need, will receive a $2,500 stipend to cover both tuition in a commercial LSAT preparation course, as well as application fees for as many as seven accredited law schools.

Other critical components of the program include:

- Coaching on how to create compelling law school application;
- Prelaw school seminar instruction on the structure of the American legal system, as well as an introduction to the substance of the required common law first-year courses; and
- An additional $2,500 in scholarship assistance for the senior year of college. Half of the scholarship will be paid after the scholar has applied to at least five law schools. The other half will be paid after the scholar attends the abovementioned seminar.

Application Instructions:

1. Download/print the application, instructions and recommendation form.
2. Complete the entire application.
3. Attach the following FOUR documents:
 - Copy of most recent FAFSA Student Aid Report;
 - Official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended (unofficial transcript may be submitted initially; however, official transcript must be provided in order to receive award);
 - Résumé (1 page maximum);
 - Completed recommendation form from ONE ACADEMIC reference.

Applications that are not completed in their entirety will not be considered.**

Personal Statement

Please provide a separate essay not to exceed two (2) double-spaced, typed pages. Describe any other matters relevant to your background, attributes, experiences, interests or perspectives that would enable you to make a distinctive contribution to the Sidley Prelaw Scholars Program, law school and/or the legal profession. Examples include any or all of the following: significant hardships or challenges overcome; unusual life experiences; evidence of and potential for leadership; and demonstrated commitment to serving underserved communities.

I hereby apply for admission to the Sidley Prelaw Scholars Initiative and understand that any material submitted will not be returned. I certify that all information provided herein is true and correct. I agree to provide, if requested, any official documentation necessary to verify the information provided. I agree to immediately notify Sidley Austin LLP of any changes in the above information. I understand that any false statement or misrepresentation on this form may result in cancellation of acceptance to the Sidley Prelaw Scholars Initiative, or if discovered after admission, may be grounds for dismissal from the program.

I authorize Sidley Austin LLP to contact the colleges, universities, employers, and recommenders indicated in my application and accompanying material to verify the accuracy of anything contained in the application and accompanying material. I understand that missing information may jeopardize the timely processing of my application. The Sidley Prelaw Scholars Program maintains the information I provide on my application. I have the right, according to the law, to have access to this information.

If accepted to the Sidley Prelaw Scholars Program, I will participate fully in the program and abide by all requirements of the program, including attending the Sidley Scholar Summer Seminar, also known as "S4" in the summer of 2012, and matriculating to law school in the fall of 2012. If I fail to satisfy all these requirements, I understand that I may be dismissed from the program and forfeit any future benefits under the program.

If accepted to the Sidley Prelaw Scholars Program, I grant permission to Sidley Austin LLP to: (i) access and review my transcripts, Degree Progress Report and other academic documentation for selection and statistical reporting purposes; and (ii) use my name, photograph and image in various promotional materials (newsletters, website, brochures, etc.).
