

Safety, Security and Privacy After Boston

Wednesday, May 15, 2013
7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m.

Join our distinguished panel in discerning a new place on the continuum between freedom and security in light of the Boston bombings. Has the Fourth Amendment been overtaken by technology? Might we as a society promulgate “No Privacy Zones,” in which all activity is subject to announced surveillance? How will the urban American experience of 2023 differ from what we experience today – and at what costs? Bring your questions, but leave all preconceptions behind. It’s Breakfast@65West, and you and your guests are invited to hear:

- Garry McCarthy, Superintendent, Chicago Police Department
- David Hoffman, Former Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois
- Kathleen Petrowsky, TSA Federal Security Director, O’Hare Airport
- Thomas Durkin, Criminal Defense Attorney and Civil Libertarian

Breakfast@65West begins with breakfast service at 7:30 a.m., followed by the program at 8 a.m. and adjournment at 9 a.m. Dress code: Business casual; no denim or athletic wear. Cost: $25 Members and their guests; $35 Non-Members.
