Sidley Austin LLP cordially invites you to attend a teleconference discussion.

Health Care Reform: Implications for Employers Wednesday, October 21, 2009

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m. Eastern

11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Central

9:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. Pacific

This teleconference will discuss the status of the health care reform bills pending in Congress and the implications for employers sponsoring group health plans.

Designed for in-house legal and human resources professionals, the teleconferences will address Congress' progress to date on health care reform legislation. We will discuss items of particular interest to employers that sponsor group health plans, including whether any proposals will have an impact on group health plans in 2010. Other topics that will be covered include:

1. Excise Tax on "Cadillac" Plans
 - How to Apportion among an Employer's Various Health Plans
 - Effect on Calculation of COBRA Premiums
2. Will Health FSAs Survive Health Care Reform?
3. The Future of Self-Funded Plan Design
 - Increase in Wellness Programs and Preventative Care
 - Cost Containment

Discussion led by:

Priscilla E. Ryan | Patrick Morrissey | William A. Sarraille
